

Green Woodpeckers.

Maude Scrivenes

W. L. G. S.

BRITISH BIRDS. SER. III.
Reprinted by permission of the Rapid Press, Ltd., London.

"OILLETTE" (For Address Only.)

PRINTED BY THE KING & QUEEN

TUCK'S POST CARD

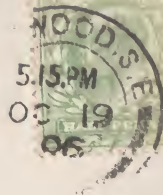

CARTE POSTALE

POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

Green Woodpecker. This, the largest of our woodpeckers, generally known as the "Yaffle" is met with in most of the wooded districts of England and Wales, but is almost unknown in Scotland and Ireland. Though the greater part of its insect food is captured on tree stems, it may frequently be seen feeding on the ground, being especially partial to ants and their pupae.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Miss J. Ladbrooke
Catfield
G. L. Yarmouth

PAID 9